Aramark is proud to receive the Most Honored Company Award from Extel (formerly Institutional Investor).

"We are honored and humbled to receive this recognition from the Wall Street community," said John Zillmer, Aramark CEO. "This award is a testament to the hard work of our more than 250,000 employees worldwide and the hospitality culture they embody every day."

Extel's All-American Executive Team was selected through a survey of 3,360 buy-side analysts, money managers, and over 330 sell-side researchers. Voters named top CEOs, CFOs and Investor Relations professionals in their coverage areas. All votes are weighted by rating and Aramark placed 1 or 2 in every category.

"I would like to congratulate our Investor Relations team for their outstanding work in presenting Aramark's business to the company's investor constituency," said Aramark CFO, Jim Tarangelo.

Extel is a highly-respected and prominent source for research rankings among top analysts and portfolio managers. The organization publishes its annual survey, which is considered the industry benchmark for institutional investors, investment managers and sell-side analysts.
