Huntsville Market Center opening marks Aramark Refreshments' first facility in Alabama

"The Huntsville Market Center opening marks Aramark Refreshments' first facility in Alabama and an important milestone in our regional growth strategy," said Patrick Liebler, President & CEO of Aramark Refreshments. "It underscores our dedication to our customers and to the communities where we live and work. We are proud to expand our service capabilities while building pathways to opportunity for the local workforce."

To best serve the region, Aramark is expanding its community presence through new workforce partnerships and local engagement efforts that support career opportunities. These initiatives include strengthened collaboration with technical schools, career centers, and community organizations to connect residents with meaningful employment and long-term career pathways. These efforts reflect Aramark's ongoing commitment to investing in the community and developing a diverse and skilled workforce that will support the Market Center and contribute to the area's continued economic growth.

With the capabilities of the new facility, Aramark will enhance the customer experience across northern Alabama by delivering:

- Enhanced product offerings
- Improved delivery and service efficiency
- Expanded fresh food and beverage options
- Support for new and existing partnerships in the region

The Market Center reinforces service excellence while creating new employment opportunities as Aramark continues its investment in the Southeast. The Madison opening expands Aramark Refreshments' national network to 90 markets across North America, further strengthening its ability to deliver responsive, locally-driven services.
